

- Serving Northwest Florida since 1959
- Total dedication to your commercial and investment needs
- 43 years experience satisfying the needs of the business community

Thanks for dropping by. Believe me, I know exactly what you're going through. Been there myself. All of us - you, me, our competition - consider our businesses to be among our most important and most valued possessions. And yes, they are stressful.

The good news is that having assistance while you navigate the commercial properties market can go a long ways towards minimizing that stress.

Hi,

I'm Richard H. Gregory, the Commercial Properties Division Manager. Be my guest. Look around; see what we have to offer. Not everything shows up in the Images above. Also, there's plenty of information about the agency and its staff, its history, its expertise, and its accomplishments. All of it, from our professional staff to our property search and project management techniques, is at your disposal.

By the way, we also have an extensive residential real estate capability. Let me know if your commercial transaction has a related residential need, and I'll have a residential specialist contact you.
